Letter from A.C. Duff Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Bellary, No. Ref. C.3155/25-B-2, dated 20th July 1925:-

Advances - Loans - Instalments - Postponement.

G.O..No. Mis. 1115 dated 21-7-1925 and Board's Reference No. F. 1979-25, dated 7-7-1925

rule IX of the Takkavi Manual. In respect of the 31 villages of the same taluk which are similarly circumstanced, my recommendation to suspend the collection was approved by Government on the recommendation of the Board. Please see G.O. No. 785 dated 28-5-1925

As suspensions of revenue were not ordered in any of the villages of the Bellary Taluk in fasli 1334, I cannot understand how rule IX applies, except to allow me to suspend individual cases If suspension of revenue had been ordered postponement of takkavi revenue would have been automatic so that I should have had no need to address the Board. Suspension of the revenue for fasli 1333 was ordered and postponement of takkavi instalments followed Where that revenue suspension has been further extended for another year, takkavi instalments can authomatically be suspended but these rules are of no use in the cases now under consideration.

Incidentally I may point out that G.O. No. Mis 1115 dated 21-7-1925 reached me direct and not through the Board from whom as yet I have no instructions regarding the interpretation of the G.O

2. It is laid down in Rule IX of the revised Loan Rules at page 61 of the Takkavi Manual that whenever suspensions of revenue are granted on a large scale over a wide area, the collection of instalments of loans due during the year or years for which suspension of revenue occurs, shall likewise be suspended. As suspensions of revenue were not ordered in any of the villages in question in fasli 1334 the general instruction contained in the rule quoted above is not applicable Al that the Collector can do is to suspend the repayment of the annual instalment in individual cases under the first sentence of the rule.

Please see G.O. No 1115 Rev dt 21-7-25 and the Board's Report at p. 2 of the letter at pp 1-2 of G.O. No 1115 Rev dt 21-7-25 the Collector requested that the collection of Takkavi instalments in 9 villages of the Bellary Taluk might be postponed. As it is reported that under the first sentence of Rule IX of the revised Loan Rules the Collector can suspend repayment only in individual cases, it would appear that it is not within the powers of the Collector to postpone the collection of loan instalments in the nine villages. The amount involved is reported to be Rs 21,535 ~~& the Collector's proposal under letter at pp 1-2 of G.O. 1115 Rev dt 21-7-25 will be accepted.~~ A revised draft order is submitted for approval & Finance for acceptance
